

During the McGraw Hill, Mountain States Construction, Gold Hard Hat Awards presentation - October 1, 2010, the following civil & structural projects were recognized:

Denver Botanic Gardens Capital Improvement Projects

Gold Hard Hat Awards – Gold – Best Overall Project of 2010, Outstanding Cultural Project

Structural engineering design services for various remodel/renovation and addition projects at the Denver Botanic Gardens. Improvements including parking garage with green roof, visitor center, horticulture facility, stormwater vault and greenhouse.

Denver Health and Hospital Core Remodels

Gold Hard Hat Awards – Gold – Outstanding Healthcare Project

Civil and structural engineering design services for multiple projects for Denver Health and Hospital.

US Dept. of Energy's Research Support Facility

Gold Hard Hat Awards – Gold – Judges Award: Outstanding Community Contribution, Outstanding Green Building Project

Complete civil engineering services for a 220,000 SF research support facility designed to be a model for sustainable, high-performance design and provide DOE-owned work space for administrative staff.

Auraria Science Building

Gold Hard Hat Awards – Gold – Outstanding Higher Education/Research Project

Structural engineering services for a 142,000 SF renovation of the existing science building.

Mesa State College Maverick Center

Gold Hard Hat Awards – Gold – Outstanding Sports/Recreation Project

Structural engineering services for a 2-story, 89,000 SF athletic and sports center expansion located adjacent to the existing recreation center.

DMNS Phipps Gallery

Gold Hard Hat Awards – Silver – Outstanding Cultural Project

Structural & civil design services

CSU Student Recreation Center Addition & Remodel

Gold Hard Hat Awards – Silver – Outstanding Sports/Recreation Project

Structural design services

University of Colorado at Colorado Springs Science and Engineering Building

Gold Hard Hat Awards – Bronze – Outstanding Architectural Design

Structural design services

Evie Garrett Dennis Campus at Green Valley Ranch

Gold Hard Hat Awards – Bronze – Outstanding K-12 Education Project

Structural design services